Welcome to Bezeugen BLAST!

I am replacing our sporadic witnessing emails with what I plan to be a weekly email newsletter, called Bezeugen BLAST!, covering the same information namely ministry news, witnessing prayer requests and news on how witnessing went. With this initial mailing I'd also like to announce a few exciting things!

First, we have named this ministry Bezeugen, which is German for witness.

Second, we have a web site! See <http://www.bezeugen.org/>. Primarily this is to allow follow-up with people we witness too. It also includes other useful information like resources, about, what we do, training information, etc. We are now putting the web site on all of the tracts that we hand out.

Third, Mande and I have researched, prayed about, and gotten set up with a couple business dealings to start funding this ministry. We are now affiliates with Christian Book Distributors - see <http://www.bezeugen.org/books/>. We are also Blessed Toys Messengers selling Bible action figures - see <http://www.bezeugen.org/toys/>. We are praying that these along with Ignite will eventually fund Bezeugen.

In the future I will likely be sending these emails from carl@bezeugen.org. Please make sure your email filters allow this email address to reach you. Thanks!
