Welcome to the second edition of Bezeugen BLAST!!

Greeting from Phoenix, AZ! Thanks for all the prayers for witnessing opportunities on my trip out here. I witnessed to a man and his college age daughter at DFW airport on Sunday night. He struck up the conversation with me commenting on my OU shirt I was wearing. Turns out he went to OU in the 1950's! We talked for 30 minutes or more about OU, etc. Then I said "Can I ask you an interesting question?" (Mark Cahill would be proud). He said OK. So I asked him what he thought happened when you die. He said he did not think he would go to heaven. His daughter professed faith in Jesus. We had another 30 minutes discussion about Heaven and Hell, Jesus, and the Gospel. Then I noticed it was 10 minutes past when my flight was supposed to board. So I gave them each Pocket Testaments of the Gospel of John and asked him to consider what we had discussed. I boarded my plane and found my seat. Next to me was a young woman who had a thick book on her lap. I asked her what the book was about. She explained that she was a middle school history teacher and this was a book for her class. We got into a long conversation. Then I asked her "Do you mind if I ask you an interesting question". She agreed. I asked her what she thought happened when you die. We talked for the rest of the flight about absolute truth, Jesus and the Gospel. When we landed in Phoenix I thanked her for the conversation, handed her a Gospel of John of John and asked her to consider what we had discussed. This morning I went down to the lobby and got a cup of tea for breakfast. I handed the gal at the counter a BILLION DOLLAR BILL tract. She laughed. So I asked her what she thought happens when you die. We spent five minutes talking about heaven and hell, spiritual things and the Gospel. I have her a tract and a Gospel of John! IN my class today I got the chance during breaks to talk with two of the participants about spiritual things. One goes to the Unity church. I want to talk to her more about that. The other is a believer.

So as you can see, the door has been opened to witnessing on this trip. Praise God and thanks for the prayers.

Craig and I went out to Valley View mall last Thursday. We had a fresh supply of spanish tracts and handed out a number of those. We had several really good conversations with people and shared the Gospel a number of times. A couple of the best conversations were with people working at a couple of the kiosks. They were really open to talking with us. Praise God!
