Ministry in Phoenix

Thanks for the prayers for my trip to Phoenix. The Lord blessed me with a number of witnessing opportunities.

Last week I shared with you about witnessing to a man and his daughter at DFW airport and witnessing to a school teacher on my flight to Arizona. While I was in Phoenix, I had several other opportunities to witness. I'd like to share some of those stories with you.

Tuesday night I decided to spend some time witnessing at the Chandler Fashion Mall, Chandler, AZ. I went out there around 6PM. The mall was fairly busy and there were a lot of people to talk to. I had a number of good conversations with people and got to share the Gospel several times. I bought Mande some earring for her birthday at a jewelry store store there. I looked at some cross earrings. I asked the young woman that was helping me why she thought people bought crosses? She said for religion, I guess. I asked her if she realized that crosses were used for execution and wondered if in two thousand years if people would buy earrings with electric chairs on them. That got her attention. So I asked her what she thought happened when she died. Turns out she is worshipping weekly in a Christian church in the area, but has not yet made a decision for Christ. I gave her a Gospel of John and encouraged her in a walk with Christ.

Dinner with good friend

Wednesday night I had the opportunity to have dinner with my good friend Dave Anderson. It is always a blessing to connect with him. Please pray for Dave's vision: to open a retreat center in the mountains of Arizona for burned out Pastors.

Conversation with a Greek Chef

I went to a casino to see if I could witness to anyone there. I wondered around there for a few minutes and did not feel an opportunity to speak with anyone. So I went back to my hotel. In the lobby I talked with Mike (from Greece) and the owner of a Chop House in Chicago. We had a long conversation about life, death, heaven and hell. He said he could not read English. I gave him a tract and a Gospel of John and asked him to have his daughter read it to him. Please pray for him.

Back in Dallas I had an interesting conversation with two Limo drivers at DFW airport. I gave them Billion Dollar Bill Tracts and shared the Gospel with them.

May I encourage you to share your faith with someone today!
