A New Year

On December 31st there was a New Years / Cotton Bowl Parade in Dallas. This picture is of Frank Broyles who retired from Arkansas yesterday after 50+ years of service there as he rides by us in the parade! Thousands of spectators lined the streets of Dallas from the Comerica building (Main & Ervay) to the American Airlines Center. Nine of us (Brad, Craig, Dan, Lynn, Mike, Greg, my son Eric, his friend Jonny and myself) were there to hand out tracts and witness. Mike and I discussed how nice it is for the parade organizers to get everyone out in public so we can witness to them! We distributed over 2000 tracts! We also got the opportunity to engage in a number of one on one conversations about Christ with people we met on the street. We spent some time in the West End talking to people. It was an interesting event because so many of the people were visiting Dallas we were able to talk to people from other areas of the country without having to travel. For the second time, I had someone witness to me while I've been out witnessing. While we were walking down the street a man came up to me and handed me a tract!

2007 Year in Review

2007 has been an exciting year as we have seen Bezeugen Ministries get off the ground. We have witnessed at a number of events including Sports, Parades, Art Festivals, Rock Concerts, Parks and Malls. We have fed homeless and provided them jackets. We have learned a lot about what tracts go over well and the logistics of various events. All of these things will help plan more successful events in the years to come. We would like to thank each of you for your support and encouragement during the year. Your prayer support is very important and encouraging to us.

New Year's Resolution

It's a new year. This is a popular time for people to make resolutions. The most popular new year resolutions are to lose weight, pay of debt, save money, get a better job, get more exercise and stop smoking. These may all be good things to do. But how about a resolution with kingdom impact? Please join me in making a new year resolution to increase the amount of personal evangelism you do. Regardless of what New Year resolutions you made this year, let me encourage you to add one more to the list. How about making personal evangelism a part of your daily life this year! Many of you received some tracts from us in our Christmas letter. Have you handed them out yet? I have heard from a couple of you about your success of distributing tracts. I would love to hear more stories of handing out tracts as you "go" about your daily life. This can be as simple as handing a Gospel tract to the cashier when you check out at a restaurant, or sharing on with a person standing in line with you. For some training on handing out Gospel tracts please check out Brad Alrich's Gospel Tracts training CD on our web site at <http://www.bezeugen.org/cpmin/>. In the coming months we will be hosting one day Evangelism Crash Courses and an eight week Basic Training class. Please prayerfully consider attending these events to gain confidence in witnessing.
