DL Moody

"Go therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and the Son, and the Holy Spirit..." Matthew 28:19

One night when DL Moody was going home, it suddenly occurred to him that he had not spoken to a single person that day about accepting Christ. A day lost, he thought to himself. But as he walked up the street he saw a man by a lamppost. He promptly walked up to the man and asked, "Are you a Christian?"

Moody did not find soul-winning easy. In fact, even Christians often criticized him for having zeal without knowledge. Others called him "Crazy Moody". Once when he spoke to a perfect stranger about Christ, the man said, "That is none of your business... if you were not a sort of preacher I would knock you into the gutter for your impertinence."

The next day, a businessman friend sent for Moody. The businessman told Moody that the stranger he had spoken to was a friend of his. "Moody, you've got zeal without knowledge. You insulted a friend of mine on the street last night. You went up to him, a perfect stranger, and asked him if he were a Christian."

On Monday we were witnessing at SMU. We had many opportunities to share the Gospel with students as they went back and forth to classes. Thanks for your prayer support. It is very important!

Moody went out of his friend's office almost brokenhearted. For some time he worried about this. Then late one night a man pounded on the door of his home. It was the stranger he had supposedly insulted. The stranger said, "Mr. Moody, I have not had a good night's sleep since that night you spoke to me under the lamppost, and I have come around at this unearthy hour of the night for you to tell me what I have to do to be saved."

This story is used by permission from The Evidence Bible. It encourages me by making me realize that people are thinking about the conversations we have with them. On Monday, Craig, Todd and I went witnessing at SMU while Mande prayer walked for us. I spoke to two men on unicycles for some time about their unicycles. When I swung the conversation to the spiritual they dismissed God and rode away. I was sad. But a friend reminded me that they will go away thinking about what we talked about! Aside from this conversation, we had many good conversation with the college students and handed out over 100 tracts! I had a good conversation with a Bhudist and gave him the audio tract "23 Minutes in Hell". Todd had a long and engaging conversation with a Muslim student.
