National Atheists Day!

"Go therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and the Son, and the Holy Spirit..." Matthew 28:19

Happy National Atheists Day to you! Today is April 1st. Traditionally known as April Fool's Day. Proverbs 14:1 says, the fool says in his heart there is no God. To claim there is no God is to be an atheist. God says that is foolish. So today is National Atheists Day! I've had some interesting dialog this week on email with a friend who claims to be an atheist. It is possible however to prove the existence of God without using the faith argument. You are probably reading this message on your computer. Your computer exists. Therefore there must be a computer maker that made it. If you look at a painting you know that there was a painter. The painting is evidence of a painter. In the same way, all of God's creation testifies that there is a creator! God exists! His creation is proof of His existence.

Jesus is Alive!

I was witnessing to a Hindu last week. Hindu's believe in a multitude of gods. Therefore they don't have much problem with Jesus; except when I tell them that Jesus says He alone is the only way to God. They like to put Jesus up on a shelf next to all the rest of their gods. But when I point out that Jesus says he is the only way to the father that becomes a stumbling block for them. I also pointed out what makes Christianity different from all other religions. As Christians, we worship a living God! When I asked my Hindu friend if any of his gods were alive, he paused for 15 to 20 seconds and then finally said "no, they are in the grave". I then told him that is the great thing about Christianity. Jesus defeated death, rose from the dead and is alive today. So we worship a God that is alive. Some may wonder why that matters. We went to two funerals last weekend. The first was for my 97 year old grandfather. For the last six months of his life he could not walk or stand because of a broken hip. The second was for an 82 year old friend of the family. For the last 20 years of his life he suffered from ALS. For many years the only way he could communicate was to blink his eye and use a special device to capture the eye movements. Both of these men had accepted Jesus Christ as their Lord and Savior. Because Jesus lives, these men are more alive now in resurrected bodies than they ever were in all their years on earth! Thank God for the resurrected Christ!
