Pesky Tele-marketers!

"Go therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and the Son, and the Holy Spirit..." Matthew 28:19

One day this week I was working from home when the phone rang. Mande answered it. She called to me, "It's GMAC. Do you want to talk to them?". I gladly took the phone and listened to the person on the other end of the line rattle of a spiel about accident protection insurance to cover my house payment in case I am not able to work. When I got a chance to speak I said, "Can I ask you a question?". She agreed. So I said "Do you have life assurance?". From there we had an interesting little conversation about the Gospel. You see life insurance protects those left behind after you die. Life Assurance is for the believer to enter heaven through faith in Jesus Christ. I declined the coverage and got off of the phone. Mande then commented to me how I will talk to anyone. I explained to her how it is the perfect opportunity to witness. If you stumble you can just hang up! Last night when I came home Mande was very excited asking me to guess what just happened. When I gave up, she said "I just witnessed to my first tele-marketer!" She was so excited. I encourage you to consider tele-marketers opportunities to practice witnessing!

Is this your typical response to a tele-marketer when they call? Or do you see them as witnessing opportunities calling to hear the Gospel from you?

Witnessing Opportunities

The Lord blessed us with many witnessing opportunities last week. We went to Willowbend mall a number of times and engaged in a number of great conversations! One thing we have noticed. Jesus wants to be Lord and savior. We talk to a number of people who like the idea of a savior and call themselves Christians because they believe Jesus will save them. But they don't like the idea of Jesus being Lord. If Jesus is Lord of my life, then I have to step off of the throne. Many people that we have talked to recently want to maintain their sinful lifestyle and be their own Lord. Instead we need to surrender to Jesus, let him be the Lord of our lives.

We also made several trips to The Shops at Legacy. We have found this to be a great place to witness and talk to people. There is a law in Plano that you can't smoke indoors. So people have to come out of the restaurants to smoke. As we wait on the side walk lots of people circulate out and we are able to witness to them.
