Do all roads lead home?

"Go therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and the Son, and the Holy Spirit..." Matthew 28:19

On Sunday evening I was talking with a Hindu man at Arbor Hills Nature Preserve. He was "okay" with Jesus. Just like he is "okay" with any of his other thousands of gods. I tried to explain to him that Jesus is different. First, Jesus is the only one that said he could forgive sin. Second, Jesus is the only one who is ALIVE! He died like the rest, but then rose again. That makes Him different. I left him with this idea: Jesus is the only way to get home! I explained this by first asking him a question, "how many ways are there to get to your house from here?" He said one. I said, you mean I can't go out of the park, pick a way to turn then randomly turn at every street I get to and expect to ever arrive at your house. He agreed I would probably never get to his house. I asked him to listen as I read John 14:1-6 which says, "Do not let your hearts be troubled. Trust in God; trust also in me. In my Father's house are many rooms; if it were not so, I would have told you. I am going there to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come back and take you to be with me

Just like there is only one way to reach the treasure on the map, there is only one way to reach our heavenly home. Jesus says, "I am the way and the truth and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me."

that you also may be where I am. You know the way to the place where I am going." Thomas said to him, "Lord, we don't know where you are going, so how can we know the way?" Jesus answered, "I am the way and the truth and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me." Just as not all roads lead to your earthly house there is only one way to your Heavenly Father's house. I gave him a Bible and a tract that compares Hindu to Christianity. Please pray for Ravi to come to know the Lord.

Street Preaching 101

I've been praying for some time now to get training, confidence and boldness to learn how to open air preach on the street. Ray Comfort says, "In thirty minutes, a good open-air preacher can reach more sinners than the average church does in twelve months." To me, that is a pretty compelling reason to overcome my fears. On Saturday night Mike and Coy took me out for my first lesson. We tried several spots around the metroplex before settling on Cedar Springs Road near Oak Lawn. Yes, this is the area near the gay bars in Dallas. Mike preached first for about 20 minutes. Coy was video taping and I was handing out tracts to people as they left the area. I was feeling a bit nervous, but decided I would give it a try. I got up on the step ladder and gave a short sermon. Preached the truth of God's word. Will be looking forward to next time!
