What is a Christian?

"Go therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and the Son, and the Holy Spirit..." Matthew 28:19

Often times when we are out witnessing to people they will identify themselves as Christian. The term is often over used and mis-used. I get to the point where I think people think they are Christian because they go to church. That is like saying that if I stand in my garage that I am a car. I came across some quotes in an interview recently that I would like to take a look at here. The interviewee starts out stating, "I am a Christian." Okay, so if we take this person at their word we would think they are saved. However, he goes on to say, "I'm rooted in the Christian tradition. I believe that there are many paths to the same place, and that is a belief that there is a higher power, a belief that we are connected as a people." Huh? How can this be? In John 14:6, Jesus says, "I am the way and the truth and the life, no one comes to the Father except through me." The interviewee's comment is totally contrary to God's word. He says it all depends on how the verse "is heard". If he is correct in saying that there are "many paths" then he is calling Jesus a liar. The interviewee goes on to say, "There's the belief, certainly in some quarters, that if people haven't embraced Jesus Christ as their personal savior, they're going to hell." I guess I fall into those quarters because I believe that is the point when Jesus says in John 3:18, "Whoever believes in him (Jesus) is not condemned, but whoever does not believe stands condemned already because he has not believed in the name of God's one and only Son." The interviewee goes on to say, "I don't presume to have knowledge of what happens after I die." Again, isn't that exactly the point. We have God's word. It is true. And it tells us what happens when we die. Being a Christian is about trusting that we are saved because of knowing our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. So who is this interviewee that would have you believe he is a Christian? His name is Barack Obama, Presidential Candidate. I believe he is a bit confused on what it means to be a Christian. Let's pray for him to know the truth!

It says in the Bible that the angles will rejoice when sinners repent. This week we had the privilege of being present when four people (two couples) accepted Jesus as their savior! We know that angels are rejoicing because of their belief!

Witnessing Encounters

So let's apply this close to home. We were witnessing Sunday night at Arbor Hills Nature Preserve to a couple of Jehovah's Witnesses. They said they were saved due to faith in Jesus Christ. Okay. Sounds pretty good, right? Let's ask them who they say Jesus is. "Just a man", they respond. We took them back to the Word of God. Showed them that Jesus is eternal, that he claims to be God, etc. If Jesus was just a man, he could not have paid for the sins of the whole world. You have to know Jesus. And you have to know the right Jesus!
