Sixty Four Years

"Go therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and the Son, and the Holy Spirit..." Matthew 28:19

Todd and I met a nice couple on Monday at Valley View Mall that had been married for 64 years! Stanley told me that he had no religious background. Bernice told me that she was raised as a Jew. They both claimed to be "good people"! Bernice was very much opposed to the Bible saying it could not possibly be true. In order to share the ten commandments with them we asked them to simply assume the Bible is true for a moment. This allowed us to share the ten commandments and reveal that they both had lied, stolen and disobeyed their parents. Bernice objected that it is so negative and asked us how we could believe in the Bible with it being so negative. We explained that we have to all understand our predicament in relation to God's law in order for their to be any good news. Stanley had a medical bracelet on his arm. We explained that he would only wear that having known and agreed that he needed it. He agreed. We finally got them to understand that there is "none that is good". We were then able to share the Gospel with them. Stanley's face absolutely beamed when he heard the good news! Bernice was still a bit skeptical. They both took Gospels of John and said they would read them. One last thing about them to show they are thinking about eternity and death. They told us that had already purchased cemetery plots and that on Tuesday they going to prepay for both of their funerals. I believe our timing of this conversation about eternity was a divine appointment. Please pray that God will save both of their souls!

On Saturday we were witnessing in Denton at the North Texas football game. We handed out around 900 tracts and had many good one on one conversations with people. Two girls that we talked too walked away saying, "after that conversation I need a beer". It is amazing that people would rather have a beer then consider that there is more to this life. Todd had the privilege of seeing Jose come to Christ when he witnessed to him! Praise God!

Last week I was witnessing on the campus of UTD which is only a few miles from my office. I had some very engaging conversations. In a matter of an hour I spoke with three atheists, an agnostic and a Buddhist. Please pray that these college students will come to know our savior.

In Orissa, India the persecution is so great that Christians are under attack for their faith, being killed and having to suspend their ministry actions. Please pray for the church planters in Orissa to keep the faith. In Iraq believers are also under similar persecution for their faith. These things make me realize the freedom that we have here in the United States to be able to share our faith. We thank God for that and pray for open doors around the world!
