After Life Catalog

"Go therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and the Son, and the Holy Spirit..." Matthew 28:19

In the September 27th Bezeugen Blast (Volume 2, Number 26) I announced that a new web site was coming soon. The new web site is to be a place for people to hear the Gospel and also a follow-up for anyone that receives one of our tracts. Eventually tracts we distribute will be custom printed with the new web site on them rather than being "stickered" with the Bezeugen web site. (Those of you who have been involved in the "stickering" know what a blessing this will be to have the tracts printed with the web site!) The new web site is now operational! This site was inspired by my discussion with the Universalist pastor who told me that people can choose their own after life from a "catalog". As we go out witnessing we are telling people that we are building a web site to capture peoples thoughts about the after life and that we'd like to include their belief. We capture their stories of what they believe and then reference them on the web site. Choose an after life sailing through time and space on a cruise ship. Or how about an eternity of your soul doing what you were passionate about while it

Witnessing Tip

When you join the Bezeugen Tract Club, you will receive with your initial shipment 10 business card sized Gospel tracts to lead people to the new After Life Catalog web site. Carry these in your wallet and give them to people you meet. They can visit the web site at their convenience and read the Gospel!

dwells in the area where your body is laid to rest. The web site also lists a number of "World Religions" to choose from. This will be a constantly evolving (see there really is evolution) web site as we get new stories to list in the catalog. I am sure that some of you will hear interesting stories that we can add. When you do, please email or tell me so that we can include your stories as well. Currently, when someone tries to order any of the listed after life's (except Biblical Christianity) they are directed to a page that indicates that item is out stock and then shares the Gospel. Eventually we will have a page that indicates why the selected After life is not true based on the Bible. We are having fun with this idea and have many ideas to implement on it. We hope it will be a place where you can send people to hear the Gospel! Please visit it
