1 in 1000!

"Go therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and the Son, and the Holy Spirit..." Matthew 28:19

The Dallas Christmas parade was last Saturday. According to Sunday's Dallas Morning News paper the parade was attended by an estimated 400,000 people. Five of us were there to distribute Gospel tracts and share the gospel. We arrived in downtown around 8:15 AM. being out in such a big crowd was definitely exciting. We distributed Gospel tracts on a couple of corners one block north of the parade route. From this vantage point we could see some of the balloons that were in the parade. I never knew that Bob the Builder was such a big part of Christmas! After the parade passed by the area where we were, we followed the parade to its completion handing out tracts as we went down the street as the crowd dispersed. This is a really fun thing to do because some people would come up to us to get the tracts realizing that someone else had gotten something that they had not gotten. After the parade ended, we ended up in front of City Hall where we were able to have a number of one on one conversations and hand out more tracts to people that were milling about. By the time we headed home around 2pm we had distributed over 3,000 Gospel tracts and had a number of one on one

Witnessing Tip

Here is Santa bringing up the end of the parade. Someone asked, "what does santa have to do with Christmas?" I said, "nothing". But he does give us a chance to tell people "Merry CHRISTmas" and remind them that Jesus is the reason we celebrate. If you need some Christmas tracts to hand out as you go out please let me know.

conversations with people! That means we interacted with just under one of each thousand people that attended.

Next year how about coming with us? With 50 people distributing tracts, we could probably reach every person attending the parade with the Gospel.

How? I figure with 50 people we easily could distribute 50,000 gospel tracts! Since most people attend the parade are in a group, if we got a tract to each group we could get the Gospel to every single person there! Assuming groups of 8, then 50,000 tracts would reach one in eight people and cover the whole crowd. Please pray about this all year. We can use people to help hand out tracts, pick up tracts people drop on the ground. We will also need people to video tape one on one conversations and open air preaching. Yes, by next year, we will be ready to do open air when we go out as well. So, please be praying about coming out to join us and help us reach 400,000 people with the Gospel! Why is that so important? Well, in the parade itself there was nothing about Jesus, the true meaning of Christmas. Like I already mentioned, Bob the Builder was there along with many other looney toon characters. There were knights. Even Santa Claus! But nothing about Jesus.

The message of Christmas will not be stopped! Because of the sin of all mankind, Jesus had to be born, live a perfect life, die on the cross, raise from the dead and defeat death and the devil. That is why we celebrate Christmas!
